Lincoln County Democratic Convention.

Pursuant to the call of the County Committee, the Democrats of Lincoln County assembled in a Delegate Convention at the County House in Wisconsin, on Tuesday, Aug. 20th, 1872.

The Convention was called to order by Henry Farrington, Esq., Chairman of the County Committee, upon whose nomination the following gentlemen were chosen officers for the temporary organization:

On motion of Frank Weeks, Esq., a committee of three were appointed by the chair on resolutions, consisting of Frank Weeks, of Dunn; Isela, Geo. W. Caldwell, of Wabholboro, and W. Wren Lewis, of Wisconsin.

The committee ably reported the whole number of delegates present, fifty-nine, all the towns in the county being fully represented except Southport and Monhegan. The

Chapman, a committee of five was appointed to confer with a similar committee from the Liberal Republican Convention in session in Franklin Hall, in reference to the proposed joint action of the two bodies. The following gentlemen were selected for that duty: Rufus C. Chapman of Damariscotta, Samuel

The committee to nominate a County Committee reported the following names: Henry Farrington of Walden, George S. Berry of Mountbarns, Richard T. Tomblott of Wessaco, David C. Hild of Bristol, and Winton H. Weeks of Jefferson, and the report was accepted by the Convention.

Rufus C. Chapman, from the committee on conference, then reported that the committee had not yet come to satisfactory agreement, and he asked the Convention to make a final report in the afternoon; thereupon the Convention adjourned to two o'clock P. M.

Upon the reassembling of the Convention the committee on conference submitted their report, as follows:

That the committee from the Liberal Republican Convention, which was called into the assembly for County Committee-convention, and for the

The President, in substance, told no candidate to take the lead in the nomination of a candidate for the Democratic Convention put in nomination a new candidate for Sheriff, believing as they do that such new nomination is essential to the success of the ticket to be put in nomination here-to-day.

After a considerable discussion, participated in by Messrs. Giddien of Woods County, Francis of Sonnewille, M. E. Weeks of Jefferson, and others, the report of the committee was accepted, and it was voted that the Convention assemble at the first proposition contained in the report, and agree to support the candidates that may be put in nomination by the Republican Convention for the office of County Commissioner and County Treasurer.

The Convention then proceeded to ballot for a candidate for Senator, with the following result:—

Whole number of votes, 41

Samuel W. Jackson, of the Convention, was a candidate for Judge of Probate, desired to withdraw his name, as he could not accept a nomination. A ballot was then taken for a candidate for Judge of Probate.

At the request of a Republican man and brother we give place to the following:

MR. EDITOR: Will you allow me, as a member of the Republican County Convention, to state the bad faith by which the nomination for Register of Deeds was made to take the direction it did, on Saturday. I have the best authority for stating that, just before the Belfast caucus when Mr. Wells and I withdrew as a candidate, in the presence of the other two, Mr. Brackett and Mr. Adams, entered into an agreement that the matter should be settled in the Belfast Caucus. As one must necessarily carry it off, it was agreed that Adams should withdraw. In accordance with that agreement, and believing that his opponent would keep it, he withdrew. But he did not. He was carrying around the caucus. But his opponent kept

Just see how ready Mr. Boyle will be to help the Doctor lead by the hand. He is a man of sense and has carried the caucus in obedience to the expressed sentiment of his townsmen. Mr. Ames perturbed the meeting with his political tactics, which went through the convention so smoothly, and the same combination was prepared to buy a time and would have done so but for treacherous and underhanded work.

The hand of Mr. Collector Roberts was visible throughout the convention. He encouraged the speakers, as above, and he really controlled at all times. He is a man of sense. Senators, Dr. Brooks is a man to straight-forwardly state his case. He is a man of sense. Otherwise, the whole ticket is his handiwork. It is really too bad, after Roberts has destroyed the party in the county, that the people are planted to the Belfast Custom House, to work destruction with the party in the County. I do not think the people are ready to endorse nominations thus made.

STANLEY REPUBLICAN.
